Elkin, North Carolina – (July 18, 2007) – Merritt Studios, LLC, a newly formed organization focused on creative living, today announced that the fourth issue of MerriMail (www.merri-mail.com) goes “herban” with a gift of essential oil towelettes from Herban Essentials (www.herbanessentials.com). The complementary MerriMail newsletter highlights the many uses for the towelettes, as well as articles that explore handiwork, body care, sweat equity and more.

Launched in September 2006, MerriMail is the first creative living subscription service that includes delightful gifts (a surprise present) and thoughtful ideas (a brief newsletter) delivered four times a year. Each issue of MerriMail focuses on one of the following themes: Creativity, Body, Social, Exploring, Indoors, and Outdoors, providing subscribers with a variety of unique gifts and simple ideas.

“The fourth issue of MerriMail focuses on the body—from ways to care for your hands and body using the Herban Essential towelettes to ways to use your own talents in the form of sweat equity to start your own business,” said Caroline Armijo, co-founder, Merritt Studios, LLC. “We hope the gift and articles inspire readers to utilize their skills and explore their entrepreneurial spirit while also appreciating their bodies.”

“We selected the Herban Essentials essential oil towelettes as the gift for this issue because we appreciate their pleasant aroma and all-natural ingredients to clean hands, kill germs, and so much more,” said Eris Ball, co-founder, Merritt Studios, LLC. “We also like their compact design which allows you to take them easily with you wherever you go so that you’re well prepared for almost any sticky, sweaty, yucky encounter.”

The bag of Herban Essentials essential oil towelettes includes a mixture of three scented towelettes: lavender, lemon and peppermint. Made with high-quality essential oils, these towelettes are naturally antibacterial and antiseptic, making them ideal for cleansing hands and killing germs.

Just as the gift included in Issue 4 of MerriMail is a treat for the body, the newsletter features body-related and other synergistic articles such as:

- The Origins of Aromatherapy
- Caring for Your Hands
- Nine Tips for Launching a Business
- Identifying Your Inner Brand With Style Statement Experts Carrie McCarthy and Danielle LaPorte
- Books for Catching the Entrepreneurial Spirit
- Knit Painting Series by Artist Rania Hassan
- BodyTalk Language of Health
- Kiehl's Superbly Efficient Anti-Perspirant & Deodorant
- Helping the Homeless by Creating a Survival Kit
- Using "One Hat at A Time" to Solve a Problem

MerriMail is an ideal treat or gift for anyone interested in creativity, design and everyday living. Currently, MerriMail is a quarterly service that costs $88.00* for a one-year subscription. MerriMail is delivered in January, April, July and October.
